ARKANSAS METHODIST ORPHANAGE.

The above is the picture of the new Home. The report of the Board of Trustees contains the following reference to the new Home:

“You doubtless know that Bro. Thornburgh is raising the money to build the Home for which service he refuses any salary or commission. He has done much work in the past several years for the Orphanage, without any pay whatever, and certainly, if he can accept such a labor without charge, every preacher and layman in Arkansas should heartily encourage him by a prompt and liberal contribution.

There is no higher obligation or privilege than to build this Home. There is no charity that should appeal more strongly to the hearts of men and women than that of caring for the homeless and helpless orphans. Thirty thousand dollars is a small amount to raise for so great a cause. The new building is progressing nicely. The Board of Trustees voted that the showing made by Bro. Thornburgh was such as to authorize the work to proceed vigorously. The foundation is completed, and the walls will go up at once. We hope to have it ready for occupancy next spring. We hope no delay will be caused by lack of funds.

The Ladies' Advisory Board has asked permission to furnish the new Home, when it is completed, and we have authorized them to do so. We suppose they will endeavor to enlist the sympathy and support of all the Home Mission Societies in the State, in furnishing the new Home. It would be peculiarly appropriate for the women and children exclusively to furnish the Home with substantial and modern equipment. We believe they will do it if given an opportunity and the least encouragement.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES,

By G. H. Kimball, Secretary.”

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.Publishing Interests.

The publishing interests of the Church constitute no small item in the work and economy of the Church, and should have the intelligent attention of all our ministers and people. Improvement and development should be the determination of all concerned, and every effort should be put forth to place our literature in the hands of all our people.

Western Methodist.

The Western Methodist is the Conference organ. It is fortunate in its editorial management. Dr. Jas. A. Anderson, the editor, wields a vigorous pen and keeps his patrons informed of the field in which the paper circulates. We desire to express our hearty appreciation of the strong and fearless attitude the paper has taken on the question of State-wide prohibition. We have been informed of the lawsuit instituted against Anderson, Millar & Co., and desire to express the hope that the final adjudication may be a distinct triumph and vindication for our brethren. We extend to them our assurance of continued confidence and of such co-operation as may be in our power.

Methodist Review.

The Methodist Review is edited by Dr. Gross Alexander. He came to this work after having occupied for years the chair of New Testament Greek in the Theological Department of Vanderbilt University. He is a theologian of repute, an eminent author and an expert in the study of the New Testament. His wide range of reading, his acquaintance with all the modern schools of critical scholarship give him eminent fitness for the position he occupies. He shows fine judgment and wisdom in the articles selected for the Review and the increasing popularity of the Review is gratifying and encouraging.

The Christian Advocate and Epworth Era.

From the statement issued by the publishing agents we note that the Advocate is published at a loss of $4,977.00, and the Epworth Era of $3,822.00, making a total loss of $8,799.00, annually. The publishers declare that "examination of the reports of the publishers of other religious papers shows that we have much company in this particular." Furthermore, they write: "We deem it but just to these papers to say that if the amounts due them on subscriptions could have been collected, they would show no deficit. The year has been a hard one on religious periodicals the country over." This language is used to explain and excuse the deficit which for years past has occurred. This phraseology is not business-like. If there are amounts due these papers for subscriptions they should be collected. Every business house that hopes to succeed makes it a point to push and force collections. If debtors are not amenable to moral suasion they should be compelled by law to pay money due the publishing house. These papers should be so edited and managed as to command the patronage of the Church as a whole. With a membership of one million seven hundred and fifty thousand, it should not be impossible to publish these papers without annual loss.

Dr. Winton, the editor of the Advocate, is possessed of rare ability as a writer. But writing able editorials and editing a paper are two things. To edit a paper attractively is to place before the readers articles which meet the demand of its patrons. The central organ should be more than a merely denominational paper. It should supply church news. It should give a survey of Catholic Christianity. It should be strictly abreast of the times. It should give reports of great church assemblies, and furnish some of the addresses there delivered. It should be so comprehensive and many-sided, that it would be unnecessary to resort to other church papers for the information desired. All great moral questions which concern mankind should have a sympathetic representation in the columns of the central organ.

The Epworth Era.

The editorial work of the Epworth Era is of high literary quality. Drs. H. M. DuBose and F. S. Parker are men of distinctive literary ability. Both of them are pleasing and capable writers. For some reason, however, many of the young people of the League are not reading the paper. It is sadly true that most of our young people read little or nothing except the newspaper. If articles can be supplied which will command the attention of the young people, this is manifestly the thing to do. The writer or speaker who can reach the young people has accomplished much. Yet this must be done or we fall short of measuring up to the requirements of our responsibility. The great prosperity enjoyed by some of the secular publications, such as Success and the Youths Companion, might suggest to the editorial management via media by which our young people might be enticed into the reading of the Era. One dollar a year for the Epworth Era does not appear to be an excessive price, and yet if it were practicable to publish a young people's paper at half that price, perhaps three or four times as many papers could be profitably disposed of.

We commend to the attention of the Conference the catalogue of books published by the Publishing House and would remind the brethren that by subscribing, themselves, for the papers and the Review, and urging their membership to do likewise, they can contribute much toward the success of our Publishing House.

S. H. WERLEIN,
For the Committee.

We have elected Rev. W. R. Harrison in the place of Rev. W. C. Hilliard and J. O. A. Bush in the place of Atticus Douglas.

There is a deficit of $62.00 on the amount assessed for General Conference Fund. We recommend that the Presiding Elders be instructed to raise this amount from the charges which failed to pay said assessment.

We have placed the amount appropriated for Edith and Yancy Christmas in the hands of the chairman of this Board, to be used for their benefit according to his best judgment.

BOARD OF MISSIONS.

We, your Board of Missions, have carefully and prayerfully gone over the missionary work of our Conference. We rejoice in the growing interest manifested, first by an increase in funds collected; second, in the spread of a knowledge of missions and the growing spirit of missions.

The one thing that grieves us, is the insufficiency of funds to meet the pressing needs of this hour. This need is in the city and in the country, and in seeking to find a way to more effectually inform our people and increase our missionary budget, we recommend that our Presiding Elders employ such assistance as they may think most helpful in revival work and the dissemination of missionary information.

We recommend W. F. Evans to be continued as Conference Missionary Secretary.

We also recommend that Rev. W. F. Evans, our Conference Missionary Secretary, go into the stronger charges and represent our needs and take collections for the supply of the present need, as in his judgment he may think best. We have made the following apportionments to the several Districts:

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Your Board has had the report of Dr. J. D. Hammond, secretary of the General Board of Education, in which he sets forth the rapid growth of our educational institutions and urges their imperative needs. We heartily commend the efforts of the General Board to secure a club of 100,000 persons paying $1.00 per year each for a period of five years. The fund thus to be secured is to be known as the Education Extension Foundation.

We have had before us the representatives of Hendrix, Galloway and Henderson Colleges, and the Clary Training School at Fordyce.

We are rejoiced at the liberal patronage of all these institutions. We heartily commend them to all who are seeking schools of high standard with a moral and religious tone; and we respectfully insist that all the people called Methodists within the bounds of Arkansas give their unhesitating patronage to our own schools, because there are none better.

All these schools have had, and are having still, a hard and a discouraging struggle because of a lack of money. We thank God, and the generous hearts of many contributors, for the recent large gifts to Hendrix and Henderson Colleges. But all three of our Colleges are in the most critical need of much more still. About $40,000 more must be secured by March 1 for Hendrix College, in order that the trustees of that school may claim the $75,000 bonus and complete the $300,000 endowment.

The situation of Hendrix College is so critical just now, and so much is at stake and depending upon immediate and united energy of Arkansas Methodism, that we cannot afford to do less than to give it the chief place in our thought, prayer, and giving for Christian education until it has safely passed this crisis. We call upon all our preachers and all our congregations to come quickly and strongly to this relief during the next six months. We ask the right of way for Hendrix College, because the situation is not so critical with our other institutions, as much as they do need money. In the meantime, we promise Henderson and Galloway Colleges that we shall not forget them; but shall turn to them so quickly as the present exacting demands of Hendrix College are met.

Clary Training School.

The conditions upon which the Clary Training School was to be turned over to the trustees of the Clary-Banks School have not been met, owing to the death of Mr. J. D. Clary; hence the school and property revert to the Little Rock Conference. We, therefore, nominate, as a Board of Trustees for the Clary Training School, G. M. Hampton, F. E. Harrison, R. P. Graham, S. W. Higginbotham, A. B. Banks, E. T. Collins, C. B. Hickey, R. W. McKay, W. T. Murry and R. T. Holderness.

We cordially commend to our people Mr. Thatch, the principal of this school, as a man worthy of our trust.

We recommend:

1. That T. D. Scott, J. A. Buchanan, Forney Hutchinson and J. F. Giles be elected to succeed themselves as trustees of Hendrix College.
2. That C. C. Henderson, W. F. Evans, J. C. Rhodes and W. K. Ramsey be elected to succeed themselves as trustees of Henderson College; and, that J. L. Cannon be elected in the place of H. D. McKinnon.
3. That Jas. Thomas be reappointed Commissioner of Education.
4. That W. F. Evans be reappointed Financial Agent of Henderson College.
5. That an assessment of $1,500.00 be made on the Conference for Hendrix College, and an assessment of $1,000.00 for Henderson College.
6. That the total assessment for education, including $1,120.00 for the General Board, and amounting in all to $3,620.00, be apportioned among the Districts as follows: Little Rock, $540.00; Pine Bluff, $495.00;

Camden, $515.00; Monticello, $495.00; Texarkana, $485.00; Prescott, $485.00; Arkadelphia, $625.00.

7. That the chairman of the Board of Education, the Presiding Elder of the Texarkana District, and the pastor of our church at Mena, be constituted a committee, and be invested with authority, to look into the condition of the property of the Mena-Hendrix Academy, with a view to the sale of the property or the opening of a school; their action being subject to ratification of this Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

T. D. SCOTT, Chairman.

W. P. WHALEY, Secretary.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS.

The Little Rock District Journal records the last session as the thirty-first when it should be the forty-first. Its headlines are too small, no official roll, no marginal index, some space crowded, some wasted, has some blotches and want of neatness; also the record fails to state whether some resolutions and reports were adopted by the Conference.

The Monticello District Journal presents a very faulty arrangement in phraseology, and in paragraphing, and is also destitute of marginal index.

The Pine Bluff District Journal is very well kept; but we suggest, however, that the title "Rev." is rather too profusely used, and we note the absence of marginal index, with some minor defects in expression.

The Texarkana District Journal has a line drawn through some names that instead should have been erased. We would recommend larger headlines. Otherwise this journal is well kept.

The Arkadelphia, Camden and Prescott Journals are neatly and well kept.

Respectfully submitted,

O. H. KEADLE,

J. J. MELLARD,

G. N. CANNON.

COMMITTEE ON BIBLE CAUSE.

We are glad to know that the American Bible Society has closed another year of successful work. Its total circulation of Bibles, Testaments and portions for the year was 2,062,314. Its circulation in our own land was over a million volumes, and in the Southwest almost 12,000.

The most conspicuous feature of the society's history during the year was its attempt to raise its part of the million-dollar endowment fund, made possible by Mrs. Sage's generous offer. Every effort possible has been made to raise this amount, but as yet, without the desired result. Something over $200,000.00 must be raised within the next few weeks. A crisis is upon the society. We should do our part in helping to raise the needed balance. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That all collections already raised in our Conference and not sent to the society be directed to the Endowment Fund.

Second. That we pledge ourselves to raise next year for this fund, $700.00. This amount to take the place of any offerings for the current expenses of the society, and to be distributed over the Districts on the basis of other benevolences.

We nominate Rev. Frank Barrett and Rev. P. S. Herron to fill the vacancies in the Board caused by the transfer of Revs. J. W. White and H. D. McKinnon.

Respectfully submitted,

BARNETT WRIGHT, Chairman.

C. W. DRAKE, Secretary.

The Conference was assessed $700.00 for the endowment of the American Bible Society, divided among the Districts as follows:

Little Rock District	$135.00
Camden District	125.00
Arkadelphia District	95.00
Prescott District	95.00
Monticello District	80.00
Pine Bluff District.....	95.00
Texarkana District	75.00

EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

Your Epworth League Board respectfully submits the following report:

There are 77 Leagues and 2,462 members in the Conference.

There were $642.00 contributed to missions, and to other objects, $2,207.00, this year.

We call the attention of our pastors to the League Conference which meets in 1910, at Camden, Ark.

The Conference League at Texarkana, in May, subscribed $900.00 for the support of four girls in the Scarrett Bible and Training School. This we heartily commend.

We encourage the organization of District League Conferences. We urge the pastors and League presidents to see that the Epworth Era is subscribed for and paid for. We are sorry that a deficit has occurred in the General Office on account of unpaid subscriptions to the Epworth Era.

Respectfully submitted,

FORNEY HUTCHINSON, Chairman.

JESSE L. LEONARD, Secretary.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

Your Board deeply regrets that the collections for Church Extension for the current year have fallen below those of last year. While the decrease is but slight, yet with the heavy demands made upon the Board for aid our work has been greatly retarded. The sum collected this year amounts to $3,167.00 against $3,187.00 last year. Our share of this sum is $1,620.00, which has been assigned as follows:

Chidester	$ 41.00
Dierks	249.00
Hermitage	62.00
Parker's Chapel	41.00
Glenwood	166.00
Wesson	332.00
Princeton	124.00
Bradley	124.00
Unsell Chapel.....	66.00
Carr Memorial	415.00

The assessment for the coming year is 4,480.00, which has been apportioned as follows:

Little Rock District	$775.00
Monticello District	533.00
Prescott District	673.00
Texarkana District	632.00
Pine Bluff District	623.00
Camden District	621.00
Arkadelphia District	623.00

Your Board reaffirms its deep interest in the success of the movement to build a church worthy of our Methodism at the National Capital, and assures the Rev. George S. Sexton, special agent for this great work, our sympathy and co-operation.

That we approve of the action of the General Board in setting apart annually, $15,000.00, realized from the general assessment for Church Extension and transferring the same to the loan fund.

We also approve of the plan after this year of taking the birthday offering now given to Oklahoma to constitute a fund to be known as the Sunday School Loan Fund.

At the annual meeting of the Board of Church Extension, last May, a special committee brought in a report pledging the amount of $15,000.00 to aid the Church Extension department of the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church. The report which was adopted instructs that this amount be apportioned among the several Annual Conferences. Our part is $340.00, distributed as follows:

Little Rock District	$60.00
Monticello District	40.00
Prescott District	50.00
Texarkana District	45.00
Pine Bluff District	50.00
Camden District	50.00
Arkadelphia District	45.00

We urge our preachers to send for copies of the Church Extension hand book, leaflets and charts, that they may be able to present this work more intelligently to their congregations. The only cost will be a postal card.

Respectfully submitted,

J. R. SANDERS, Chairman.

M. W. MANVILLE, Secretary.

FINANCE REPORT.

We have observed with much interest and thankfulness the broadening and increasing liberality of the members of our Church in the hearty support of all of its institutions. We have observed with great pleasure the loyal and liberal spirit shown by our people in their support of our schools and colleges. We are happy, too, to note the report from the various pastoral charges indicate that this open-handed generosity and liberal giving extend to the uttermost parts of the Conference, so that the report of "Finances in full" has become the rule and not the exception. We interpret these hopeful signs to indicate that our people are not only being blessed in their "Basket and Store," but also that they are on the upward trend in loyalty to God and a broader vision of Christian duty.

We would respectfully recommend that the Board of Stewards in each charge, if possible, should relieve the pastor of all responsibility in raising the finances of the church. We believe that this work is properly the work of business men and should be performed by the business men of the church, in the most efficient and equitable manner, and that the pastor should not even be hampered by any knowledge of the amounts given by any contributor; thus relieving him from every possible embarrassment pertaining to the church's finances. In our judgment the pastor should not be a mere server of tables, but he should "Feed the flock;" that he should be clean and holy in conversation and conduct; that he should be studious, intellectual, spiritual; that he should cultivate a social and friendly relation with all of the church members and strangers as well; that he should devote his whole time in his work of the ministry, and in leading his people in the ways of righteousness by both precept and example.

We would further recommend that the Board of Stewards should call the entire lay membership of the charge together, if possible, at least once a quarter, to discuss the financial and spiritual condition of the church and the duties to be performed by them as faithful stewards and servants of our Master.

Respectfully submitted.

ARKANSAS METHODIST ORPHANAGE.

Your Committee on the Arkansas Methodist Orphanage respectfully report that we have received a communication from the Board of Trustees of the Orphanage which reads as follows:

"The past year has been the most successful one for the Orphanage of its existence. We had, at the close of last year, 14 children in the Home. We received 20 during the year, and placed 12 in permanent homes, leaving 22 in the Institution.

During the seven years of the existence of the Orphanage, we have received 126 children. If we had retained them all, under the old Orphans' Home system, we could have made a fine showing on dress parade, but we think it far better that they are in good homes, where they are not only made happy themselves, but add to the happiness of others. To indicate the care we exercise in placing children, we will say that we had, during the past year, 61 applications for children, of which we granted 12, refused absolutely 39, and are holding up 10 for further information.

You doubtless know that Bro. Thornburgh is raising the money to build the home for which service he refuses any salary or commission. He has done much work in the past several years for the Orphanage, without any pay whatever, and certainly, if he can accept such a labor without charge, every preacher and layman in Arkansas should heartily encourage him by a prompt and liberal contribution.

There is no higher obligation or privilege than to build this Home. There is no charity that should appeal more strongly to the hearts of men and women than that of caring for the homeless and helpless orphans. Thirty thousand dollars is a small amount to raise for so great a cause. The new building is progressing nicely. The Board of Trustees voted that the showing made by Bro. Thornburgh was such as to authorize the work to proceed vigorously. The foundation is completed, and the walls will go up at once. We hope to have it ready for occupancy next spring. We hope no delay will be caused by lack of funds.

The Ladies' Advisory Board has asked permission to furnish the new Home, when it is completed, and we have authorized them to do so. We suppose they will endeavor to enlist the sympathy and support of all the Home Mission Societies in the State, in furnishing the new Home. It would be peculiarly appropriate for the women and children exclusively to furnish the Home with substantial and modern equipment. We believe they will do it if given an opportunity and the least encouragement.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES,

By G. H. Kimball, Secretary."

We report that the affairs of said Orphanage are being properly and economically administered by its Board of Trustees, and the work of erecting buildings is being prosecuted as fast as the means supplied will allow, and we commend to the Church, and to all who will, the support of this most worthy cause which must be by voluntary contributions, and we urge the necessity of raising the funds to build said Orphanage.

We also recommend that L. B. Leigh be elected trustee to fill the vacancy in the Board of Trustees caused by the removal from the State of J. G. Greenfield.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

We have reason to believe that the Sunday School interests of the Conference are increasing. New church builders no longer overlook the interests of the school, but plan for special rooms.

We rejoice at the interest of the older people in the various adult class organizations and recommend that there be formed a federation among them for a more thorough spread of the work.

We wish to impress again on your minds the importance of Children's Day and the collection on that day.

We recommend that the chairman of this board, or his representative, attend the Conference of Sunday School Board Chairmen at Nashville, Tenn.

We recommend the use of our part of the Children's Day collections in furthering the Sunday School work in the bounds of our Conference.

We rejoice that our Sunday School literature is so greatly improved and heartily recommend the use of the graded lessons.

We recommend approval of the organization of the Arkansas State Sunday School Conference and nominate W. A. Steel as clerical and DeE. Bradshaw as lay members of the board thereof from the Little Rock Conference.

We urge upon our people the attendance in April on the first convention planned by the newly organized Arkansas State Sunday School Conference.

We concur heartily in the plan for the establishment of a chair in Vanderbilt University looking to the education of our ministers in Sunday School work.

MEMOIRS.

Mrs. J. Y. Christmas.

Mary Ellen, the third daughter of James and Sarah Slight, was born October 24, 1868, in Hot Spring County, Arkansas. Was baptized in infancy by the Rev. W. S. McAdoo. Professed faith in Christ and joined the M. E. Church, South, at about ten years of age. She was married to Rev. J. Y. Christmas, of the Little Rock Conference, November 30, 1891. Her husband preceded her to the better land some five years ago, leaving the wife and three children to fight the battles of life alone. Little Nora, a bright little girl of 13, passed over the river about two months before the mother. This death leaves only two children, Edith and Yancy. Sister Christmas had many hardships to bear, many battles to fight. She gave her life for her children, always struggling to feed, clothe, and educate them. She lived a consistent Christian life to the end and died a most triumphant death. She was an intelligent, consecrated Christian. She loved her church next to her family. She was a wise church worker, and filled her place in church well, as long as she was able. She was sick for four or five months, being shut in most of the time. She was a patient sufferer, always bright and cheerful, with a faith that was unshaken. Being her pastor, I talked and prayed with her many times. She always expressed herself as being prepared to go. She said that her preparation for death was made long before the time came. She kept the fire burning on her family altar until the last. Her death was something wonderful, which occurred October 22, 1909. Just before she breathed her last, she said with perfect consciousness, "I had an insight to heaven as never before." She died with prayer and praise on her lips. Truly a noble woman has fallen. But her children and friends know where to find her.

Her pastor,

J. A. PARKER.

Ruth Clower.

Ruth Clower, daughter of the late Rev. J. S. Clower, for many years a member of the Little Rock Conference, was born in Nashville, Ark., February 7, 1894, and departed this life at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. L. Alcorn, in Gurdon, Wednesday, November 17, aged 15 years, 9 months and 10 days.

She possessed a Christian character of rare beauty. She, with her twin sister, Esther, professed faith in Christ at the age of 12 years, and united with the Methodist Church of Gurdon under the ministry of Rev. H. M. Bruce. She was a devoted member, loving the Church with all the ardor of her young life, and so great was her influence that when it was announced that she was dead, the entire community was thrown into mourning. Her funeral was held from the church she loved so dearly, being conducted by her pastor, Rev. F. N. Brewer, assisted by Rev. W. A. Steele, and was attended by the entire community.

She is survived by her mother, four sisters and one brother.

Her life was a beautiful one, and in her death the world is impoverished and heaven made sweeter.

F. N. BREWER.

Ernest Pico Sewell.

Ernest Pico Sewell was born April 26, 1882, and went home to the Father's house above September 16, 1909. He was licensed to preach in 1906, and the same year admitted on trial in the Little Rock Conference and sent to the Bright Star Circuit. In 1907 he was given an appointment as student in Hendrix College, and a like appointment in 1908. He was ambitious to complete his education, but limited means kept him from remaining in school continuously. It was his intention to devote his life to the work of the ministry, and his purpose to prepare himself as best he could for his life work. But he is not, for God took him. His life, though brief, left an influence for good on those who knew him best. He leaves a father and two brothers to mourn his departure, and there is another over whose life his death has cast a shadow, one who waited until school days should be over, and then united they would journey on through life together.

His brother writes of him: "His last hour was triumphant and peaceful. He died without a struggle. It seemed as if the angels were present to waft his spirit back to God who gave it."

H. L. SIMPSON.

J. D. Clary.

"I looked behind to find my past, but, lo, it had gone on before." These words are in themselves a fitting eulogy of the educational statesmanship, the civic righteousness, and the Christian consecration of the late lamented Prof. J. D. Clary, of Fordyce.

James Daniel Clary was born at Unionville, Tenn., May 28, 1865, and died at Fordyce, Ark., June 29, 1909. Educated at the Webb Brothers' School at Bellbuckle, Tenn., and afterwards at Vanderbilt University, the foundation was laid deep and strong for that magnificent educational career which will tell for time and eternity on the lives of hundreds of young men and young ladies in Arkansas. The three years immediately following his graduation at Vanderbilt were spent as an instructor in the Webb school, when, in 1889, he was elected principal of the Little Rock Conference Training School at Fordyce. The Conference retained him as principal for thirteen years—a continuous service, save two years in which he was a member of the faculty of one of the leading colleges of Kentucky. In 1902, at the close of his thirteen years of service in Fordyce, he resigned to accept a position in Terrill, Texas. Hendrix College secured his services for three years as principal of its Preparatory Department. For the third time he became principal of Fordyce Training School under a fifteen-year contract. At the zenith of his usefulness he succumbed to an attack of appendicitis.

On the morning of the last day of his illness he regained consciousness for two or three hours and talked with his loved ones of life, of death, of immortality. Surrounded by three lovely daughters just blossoming into womanhood, two sons yet too young to realize the magnitude of their loss, and by his devoted wife, Mrs. Mattie Thach Clary, who for twenty years and more has been his untiring co-worker, when the silver chord of life was about to be loosed and the golden bowl to be broken, he said quietly and with a breath of heaven's peace: "It is all right. I understand it all now, and some day you will understand it. Put yourself in God's hand; it is all right."

In secondary school work Prof. Clary was without a superior in our State. Scholarly, thorough, firm, untiring in work, with an abiding faith in the manifest destiny of young manhood when attuned to high ideals, he attained the highest measure of success as an educational specialist. His motto, "This one thing I do," and many of his favorite sayings—"The delight of my life is to help a good boy; a greater pleasure is to help a bad boy," "Tell him I am always willing to listen to any boy who is willing to do better," "Be a gentleman," "What is worth doing at all is worth doing well"—tell of the noble edifice of educational fact which he reared, held firmly in place by a foundation of optimism, service and thoroughness. Manhood was the ultimatum in all of his teaching, and he preferred to make a man of his pupil rather than a scholar, believing that with "character away all else is gilded loam or painted clay."

As a consistent member of the Methodist Church, South, for over thirty years, he filled practically every position of church life and was accorded many of its honors. He was one of the best Sunday school teachers in Arkansas, and for many years was superintendent of the Methodist Sunday school at Fordyce. A steward in the Methodist church during his entire residence in our State, an active member of the quarterly, district, and annual conferences of his church, three times a member of the General Conference, three years secretary of the Little Rock Conference, he rounded out his honorable career as a churchman as a member of the responsible Epworth League Board.

That this gifted educator and sterling citizen was the highest type of Christian manhood and that the harp of his soul was the most delicately strung was seen not only in his daily walk among men as a modest Cavalier Bayard, "without fear and without reproach," but in the beautiful benediction he left as a legacy to his devoted wife and children in the hour of his triumphant death.—Taken from a tribute by Prof. C. H. Brough, of University of Arkansas.

LAYMEN'S MEETING.

A meeting of the laymen of the Little Rock Conference was held in the Methodist church at Arkadelphia, on Thursday, the 25th day of November, 1909, at 4 o'clock p. m., when the following proceedings were had, towit:

The meeting was called to order by J. O. A. Bush, vice-leader of the Little Rock Conference, after which several short prayers were offered by the laymen present.

A report from each of the seven presiding elders' districts was received, showing some progress in the organization of the movement.

A motion was made and carried that the Conference be requested to admit to the minutes of that body the proceedings of this meeting, and also a list of the lay leaders with their postoffice address.

On motion of George Thornburgh, the office of secretary of this movement was created, and Mr. E. R. Robinson was elected secretary.

A motion was made and carried that one delegate from each church be elected to attend the Laymen's Missionary Meeting, to be held in the city of Little Rock, February 11-13, and that the church leader of each church, if possible, be that delegate, and where there is no church leader, the pastor be requested to elect or appoint a leader, who shall be such delegate.

J. O. A. Bush of Prescott, Ark., was elected conference leader for the ensuing year, and George Thornburgh, of Little Rock, vice-leader, and E. R. Robinson, of Lonoke, secretary.

A motion was made and carried that the Conference now in session be requested to give the laymen's work an hour at one of its sessions, when addresses shall be made by J. O. A. Bush, of Prescott, and Judge Steel, of Lockesburg.

On motion of Judge Steel the meeting adjourned.
